1. Mr. Proctor reported on the investigations. The life of the Rockefeller Commission has been extended to 6 June. It has been decided to give the Senate Committee access to the Agency budget. Agency or former Agency employees testifying before the Committee may be accompanied by an Agency representative if they wish. Agencies in the USIB ad hoc group have agreed that the Third Agency Rule will apply with respect to documents released to the Committee. Especially sensitive papers will be available only at Headquarters.
